

I am honored to offer my wholehearted support for the Reverend Dr. Kristopher Schondelmeyer in his candidacy for Co-Moderator of the 227th General Assembly of the PC(USA). I have known Kris for over twenty years, beginning when I first met him as a youth at a Presbyterian church camp, where he served as a Program Director. Even then, he demonstrated the rare combination of pastoral warmth, spiritual depth, and genuine relational connection that has defined his ministry ever since.

Kris is a loving and visionary leader who brings out the very best in people. He sees God-given potential in everyone he encounters and encourages individuals of all ages to step confidently into the unique callings God has placed on their lives. His ability to inspire youth and young adults is exceptional; he connects with them authentically, challenges them to think deeply about faith, and models what a life grounded in Christ's love truly looks like. As someone who grew up under his mentorship, I can attest firsthand to the profound and lasting impact he has on the spiritual formation of young people.

Throughout the decades I have known him, Kris has consistently embodied servant leadership. Without fail, he checks in, offers guidance, asks thoughtful questions, and reminds me, along with so many others, of God's abiding presence. His influence has strengthened my faith, deepened my relationship with God, and shaped my understanding of what faithful discipleship looks like.

Kris's ministry is marked by integrity, humility, and a steadfast commitment to the Gospel. He enriches every community he serves, fostering hope, unity, and a shared sense of purpose rooted in Christ. I am confident that his gifts, wisdom, and servant-hearted spirit would be a tremendous blessing to our denomination in the role of Co-Moderator.

I offer my full support for the Reverend Dr. Kris Schondelmeyer's candidacy and pray that the General Assembly may be guided by the Holy Spirit in its discernment.

In Christ,
Jessie Fulmer
Former Mound Ridge Camper/Counselor, Friend